TEGUCIGALPA, HONDURAS C.A. - At the Hotel Real Intercontinental Tegucigalpa, capital society presented an award to the Foundation for the Orphaned Children in Honduras – Comunción H.

Lucrecia Alvarez and Sor Leonarda Martínez Lali.

Mr. James Michael Canahuati and Mr. Michael Chong, representing the Leonarda's Home of Hope, Inc. are responsible for raising awareness of Comunción H (the home for orphans from parents with HIV/AIDS).

During the event, the founder and current director of Comunción H, Sister Leonarda Martinez Lali, was recognized with the presentation of an Honor Scroll of Merit for her invaluable contribution to society and her profound sense of human solidarity. The presentation was made by Lucrecia Alvarez from the Mayor's Office in Tegucigalpa.

The orphanage, located in the town of Limón, Department of Colon, Honduras, is where 70 children and young people reside. They are given education, food, shelter, and above all love.

After the awards program, a presentation was made to share the plans for construction of a new orphanage and other support for "Comuni3n H" in order to expand upon the noble crusade of love and solidarity that Sister Leonarda has undertaken.
